J. M. Ivie has just completed the burning of a kiln of brick that will do for street paving. The kiln is close to town and easy of access. Mr. Ivie has labored long and at great expense to produce the vitrified brick, and we are glad to note that success has at last crowned his efforts.

Chas. McCaw, a young man of LaPlata, was drowned in the Santa Fe pond near La Plata, Wednesday evening of last week. He had ridden into the pond to wash his horse when the animal stepped into a deep hole and horse and rider disappeared from sight. The young man could not swim and was drowned before help could reach him.

William Hart of our city, has just completed the model of an invention, and forwarded it to Washington City to be patented. It is a device for propelling cars by lever purchase, the purchase being within the car itself. A saving of one-fourth the drawing power is claimed for it. The power however can be increased or decreased according to size of wheels employed in construction.

"The Ministry of the Holy Spirit" and "The Call to the Christian Ministry" were the themes presented by Prof. Laughlin in his farewell sermon to the Christian church last Sunday. There was a large attendance at both services. Prof. Laughlin will supply the pulpit for a few Sundays, preaching only at the morning service. There will be no evening service until further notice. A district convention of the Christian churches in Northeast Missouri will be held with the Kirksville church commencing August 9th and continuing three days.

Quite an enjoyable time was had at the residence of C. Y. Bailey, on last Wednesday evening, it being Marcellus Bailey's twenty-fourth birthday. About 10 o'clock the guests, thirty-five in number, were invited to the dining room where they found a table laden with the delicacies of the season. A number of young people were present from Kirksville, Brashear, Millard and La Plata. We must say that it was a time long to be remembered by all present.

We wish Mr. Marcellus many more such birthdays and that we may be present.

SACRIFICE SALE.

I HAVE FULLY DECIDED TO SELL OUT THE FOLLOWING LINES AND DISCONTINUE FOREVER HERE— AFTER TO KEEP THEM IN STOCK

CLOTHING, CARPETS AND BOOTS

I have about three thousand dollars invested in these goods and they will all be placed on sale Saturday morning, July the 23rd. The Clothing at a sacrifice less than cost, and the Carpets and Boots at what they cost me in the markets. Owing to the long continued bad weather and poor trade this spring and insufficient capital to carry these lines full I am driven to make this sacrifice to raise funds to meet my obligations. I must have money. Make an assignment or be sold out by the SHERIFF. This is no idle talk but solid, serious, stubborn facts, and the sale will continue until the above goods are closed out and during July and August everything in our store (except staple cotton goods) will be reduced in price. All of our Celebrated "Drew Selby & Co's. fine Shoes and Slippers will be sold at 25 and 50 cents a pair less than regular prices. Price these goods and be convinced that we mean business.

YOURS FOR MORE TRADE OR BUST,

B. F. LAMKIN.
